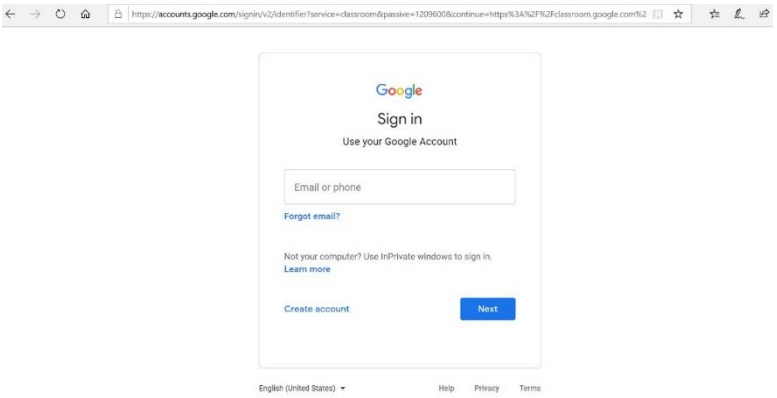
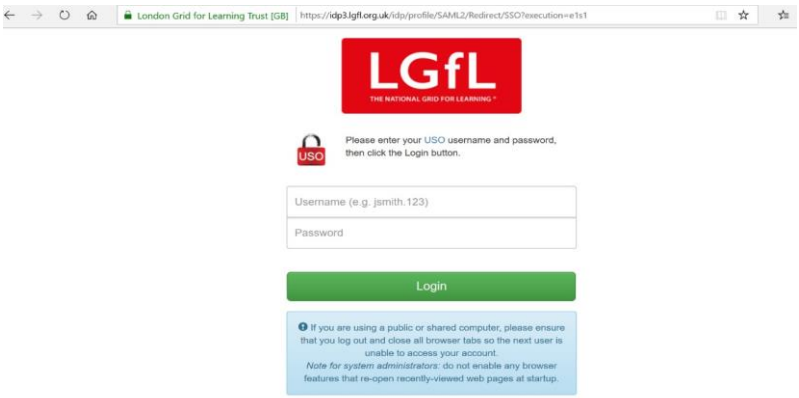
How to access Google Classroom

Open your web browser using Google Chrome.

Enter classroom.google.com into the search bar. Alternatively, if your home page is set to google, you can click the 'Sign in' button at the top right hand corner of the screen. This page should appear:



In the box, type your e-mail address, for example yourname976.303@apps.christchurch.bexley.sch.uk and click Next.
You will then be directed to another page which looks like this:

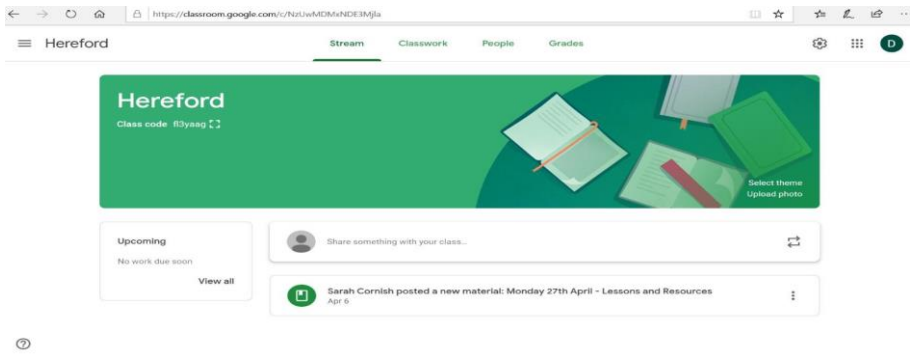


Here, you need to enter your username and password.

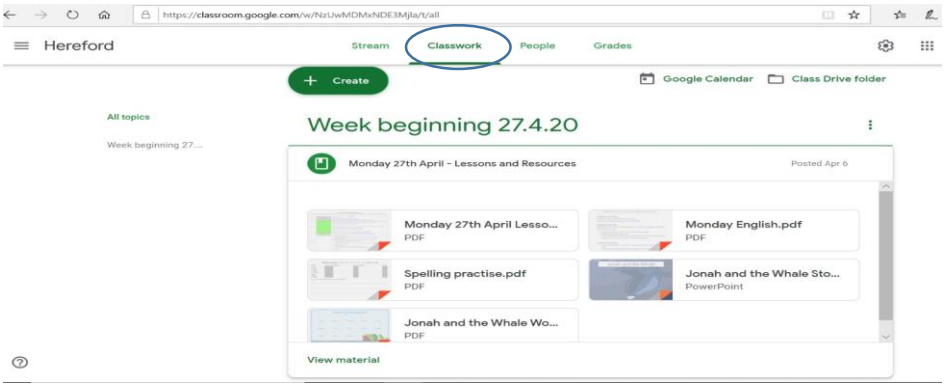
If you receive an error message at this point, please try to enter your child's username, for example: yourname976.303, enter the password again and click login.

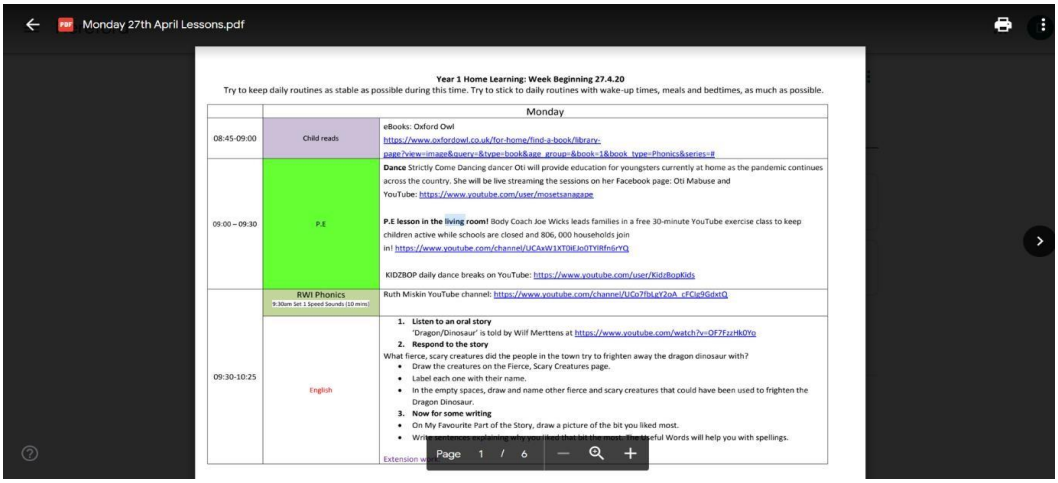
You should then be directed to your Google Classroom page. If you are directed to another google screen, please click the 9 squares in the top right hand corner and then click on 'classroom'.

When you enter your google classroom, you should see an invitation to your class, which you will need to accept. You can then enter that class, where your stream will look similar to this:



You can access your work for the day through clicking the link on the screen, or by clicking 'Classwork' which you will see at the top of the screen.





In order to view a document, click on it and it should open up.
